Social Studies Reflections 3rd Grade Chapter 5

In 1978, a specialist school of petrochemical technology and its second branch was established in Beijing. In 1985, the school was incorporated into the Sinopec, the largest oil company in China. In 1987, a new building was cornerstoned in Daxing, the southeast [clarification needed] area of Beijing.

International Relations was founded in 1949 to train foreign affairs cadres for the newly created People's Republic of China. In 1961, the school merged with the Foreign Affairs College. In 1964, then-Premier Zhou Enlai ordered the creation of colleges and university departments to focus on international affairs.
